ETHICS

Ethics is knowing the difference between what you have the right to do and what is the right thing to do.

- Peter Stewart

This course will help you clearly formulate your ethical position on issues that we face daily and help you discover your personal morals and values. It will uncover personal biases that affect your actions and decisions.

Overview

Most of us would agree that it is ethics in practice that makes sense. This course helps participants to abide to code of conducts and engage themselves in fair practices all of which will benefit the consumer, the society and their organization.

HOW THIS COURSE WORKS

This course is based on Thompsons PCS model which suggests that individuals are affected by what he calls personal, cultural and structural influences that come together to impact on how we fit into the social world. The PCS analysis will help participants identify how the individual or personal experience is affected by cultural and structural influences.
